Mobility Information:

a) Unfortunately this pilgrimage does not have provisions for disabled people and is therefore wholly unsuitable for them. However, if you consider that your condition does not prevent you from taking part (mindful of paragraph e. and f. here below), please phone the number below. It is of the essence that you provide a full disclosure of your disability to enable the organisers to assess whether this pilgrimage would be suitable for you or you may find yourself impeded in continuing and stranded and having to return to the UK by your own devices and at your own cost.

b) This pilgrimage is run as a spiritual pilgrimage, with daily Mass and Rosary. It involves a lot of walking and early morning rising. Those wishing to book need to be prepared for this and to follow the group. If in doubt please consult the organisers before booking.

c) PLEASE NOTE : There is a lot of walking on many days, with steps inside and outside buildings, including rough ground and that this pilgrimage regrettably is not suitable for disabled people or for those not fully and independently mobile (we simply do not have the necessary facilities and organisation). Any personal conditions will be noted as you disclose them on your booking form. Very occasionally however, on some past pilgrimages, it was found on arrival in the country of pilgrimage that a person had not disclosed fully or in part a personal disability/condition that required, for example, the use of a wheelchair, or other artificial walking aid, or other limiting personal condition (i.e.: ability to walk no more than a short distance) and that specific personal assistance was required (which this pilgrimage does not and cannot provide). Such condition would make such a person unsuitable for this pilgrimage and he/she, in actual fact, should not book. Should such a (rare) situation occur and someone books for this pilgrimage without clearly and fully disclosing personal disabilities/conditions/limitations, the pilgrimage organisers (A Day With Mary) reserve the right to restrict or deny access/coach travel to such persons anywhere in the Holy Land as they consider necessary. In such an eventuality, such pilgrim(s) would have to make his/her own way back from anywhere in the Holy Land to the UK by their own devices and at their sole expense. Please also note that failure to disclose personal conditions/disabilities may invalidate your travel/medical insurance and could have serious consequences for you in case of need whilst abroad. Without wishing to make you feel at all unwelcome, we thought to point all this out to you now so that matters are clearly understood in advance in those personal cases where the above should happen to apply (very rare ones in our experience). Should you have any queries please contact the organisers before applying. Thank you for your understanding.

Dietary Requirements: Please provide any special requirements that you may have i.e. vegetarian, gluten free, cant' eat fish etc. .. Please note, it may not always be possible for these to be available.
